

Final Project Event #3

Asian American Studies Carnival for Los Angeles
Chinatown Youth Center

Note: Participation in this event counts as two-and-a-half events

Friday, March 4, 4:15 p.m. - 6:15 p.m.
Chinatown Service Center Youth Center

Educational themes for activities (incorporate two of the following three themes into each activity):

1. Importance of youth to learn about issues facing immigrant workers since many of their parents and relatives and Chinatown residents are immigrant workers.
2. Importance of youth to learn about racism, sexism, and other forms of oppression that affect their daily lives.
3. Importance of high school youth to work together with college youth and other generations to deal with problems facing Chinatown.

Class contact person: Diana Ngo-Vuong, (626) 757-4150