

Final Project Event #5

Carnival Activities for CSUN "Day of Diversity"

Note: Participating in this event counts as two-and-a-half events

Tuesday, March 15, 12 noon to 1:15 p.m.

Outside CSUN Library

Parking at CSUN costs $4

Try to arrive on campus early and come to my office in 205 University Hall (EOP office); we can then walk together to the library

Educational themes for activities:

1. Promote appreciation of campus diversity (race, gender, etc.) and friendships based on diversity.
2. Emphasize importance of building understanding and unity among different racial and ethnic groups at CSUN.
3. Promote education to the general campus community about important issues facing Asian Pacific Americans, such as immigrant rights, model minority stereotype, and interethnic and interracial coalition-building.
