

1

My Grandmother walked from North Korea down to South Korea, literally holding her children in her arms. My father was the youngest, so she carried him on her back (Piggy Back Style)

2

As soon as he turned 18, my Father decided to immigrate to America and start a family

3

My father received a business degree from USC and then...

4

... Started a family and moved to Hacienda Heights.

