2. Plan Accordingly: Not all courses are taught on a yearly basis.
3. Independent Study / Contract Courses (Anthro 195CE/197/199). Contract forms are accessed and generated via MyUCLA.

Anthro 195CE = Community and Corporate Internships in Anthropology

Anthro 197 = Literature based research

Anthro 199 = Project based research

Students may apply a maximum of 8 units of independent study only toward the 2 UD Anthro Course requirement.

4. Students participating in the UCLA's Institute of Archaeology Summer Field Program may petition to use a maximum of 8 units of Archaeology C159 toward Anthropology's major requirements (options: UD Archaeology, and/or UD Additional Anthropology).
5. Watch your DARS! Make sure all Anthropology courses are being applied. Newer courses are not always automatically applied to the degree requirements. Departmental petitions will be reflected on your DARS.
6. To gain smaller seminar experience, students can enroll in 89 and/or 189. The upper division option is preferable.
7. Certain courses not on this list may also fulfill specific requirements. Check with the undergraduate advisor for a proposed course offerings sheet for the year.
