THE CUNY LATINO FACULTY INITIATIVE

Dear Colleagues:

I write you as the newly-appointed Interim Director of the CUNY Latino Faculty Initiative. As you may know, Chancellor Matthew Goldstein is making a special effort to attract Puerto Rican/Latino faculty to the 19-college system of the City University of New York. I am committed to helping this effort.

Presently there are more than 100 positions open, many of potential interest to Latina/o scholars. If you are entering the academic market this year I urge you to do the following soon:

1) Visit_

<http://portal.cuny.edu/cms/id/cuny/documents/jobposting/TeachingTOC.htm>_

and review the current listing. Several positions have upcoming deadlines.

2) If you have an interest in a specific campus, visit_ www.cuny.edu_ <<http://www.cuny.edu>> for links to the various colleges and check their job postings.

3) If you pursue a position, be sure to apply directly to the address as announced by CUNY. Do NOT submit your official application to this Initiative.

4) Send me a copy of your application (cover letter and CV) if you would like the Latino Faculty Initiative to help keep track of CUNY's outreach and recruitment progress. Send to: _mpaz@hunter.cuny.edu

_5) If you are not presently seeking employment, but would like the Initiative to include your CV in our databank, please send to: _mpaz@hunter.cuny.edu_. If you previously sent your CV and have since updated it please re-send.

All personal information is kept in the strictest confidence and no materials are shared with other entities.

Sincerely,
