13 SEC. 3. FINDINGS.

14 Congress makes the following findings:

15 (1) On July 22, 2004, the House of Represent-16 atives and the Senate declared that the atrocities oc-
17 ccurring in the Darfur region of Sudan are genocide.

18 (2) On September 9, 2004, Secretary of State 19 Colin L. Powell stated before the Committee on For-20 eign Relations of the Senate, “[w]hen we reviewed 21 the evidence compiled by our team, along with other 22 information available to the State Department, we 23 concluded that genocide has been committed in 24 Darfur and that the Government of Sudan and the

1 [Janjaweed] bear responsibility—and genocide may 2 still be occurring”.

3 (3) On September 21, 2004, in an address be-4 fore the United Nations General Assembly, Presi-5 dent George W. Bush affirmed the Secretary of 6 State’s finding and stated, “[a]t this hour, the world 7 is witnessing terrible suffering and horrible crimes in 8 the Darfur region of Sudan, crimes my government 9 has concluded are genocide”.

10 (4) On July 30, 2004, the United Nations Se-
11 curity Council passed Security Council Resolution
12 1556, calling upon the Government of Sudan to dis-13 arm the Janjaweed militias and to apprehend and 14 bring to justice Janjaweed leaders and their associ-15 ates who have incited and carried out violations of 16 human rights and international humanitarian law, 17 and establishing a ban on the sale or supply of arms
18 and related materiel of all types, including the provi-
19 sion of related technical training or assistance, to all 20 nongovernmental entities and individuals, including 21 the Janjaweed.

22 (5) On September 18, 2004, the United Na-
23 tions Security Council passed Security Council Reso-24 lution 1564, determining that the Government of 25 Sudan had failed to meet its obligations under Secu-

1 rity Council Resolution 1556, calling for a military
2 flight ban in and over the Darfur region, demanding 3 the names of Janjaweed militiamen disarmed and 4 arrested for verification, establishing an Inter-
5 national Commission of Inquiry on Darfur to inves-6 tigate violations of international humanitarian and 7 human rights laws, and threatening sanctions should 8 the Government of Sudan fail to fully comply with 9 Security Council Resolutions 1556 and 1564, includ-
10 ing such actions as to affect Sudan's petroleum sec-11 tor or individual members of the Government of 12 Sudan.

13 (6) On February 1, 2005, the United Nations
14 released the Report of the International Commission 15 of Inquiry on Darfur, which had been submitted to 16 the United Nations Secretary-General on January 17 25, 2005.

18 (7) The Report of the International Commis-
19 sion of Inquiry on Darfur established that the "Gov-20 ernment of the Sudan and the Janjaweed are re-21 sponsible for serious violations of international 22 human rights and humanitarian law amounting to 23 crimes under international law," that "these acts 24 were conducted on a widespread and systematic 25 basis, and therefore may amount to crimes against

1       humanity,” and that Sudanese officials and other in-2       dividuals may have acted with “genocidal intent”.

3           (8) The Report of the International Commis-
4       sion of Inquiry on Darfur further notes that, pursu-5       ant to its mandate and in the course of its work, the 6       Commission had collected information relating to in-7       dividual perpetrators of acts constituting “violations 8       of international human rights law and international 9       humanitarian law, including crimes against human-10      ity and war crimes” and that a sealed file containing 11      the names of those individual perpetrators had been 12      delivered to the United Nations Secretary-General.

13          (9) On March 24, 2005, the United Nations Se-
14      curity Council passed Security Council Resolution
15      1590, establishing the United Nations Mission in 16      Sudan (UNMIS), consisting of up to 10,000 military 17      personnel and 715 civilian police and tasked with 18      supporting implementation of the Sudan North-19      South Peace Agreement and “closely and continu-20      ously liais[ing] and coordinat[ing] at all levels with 21      the African Union Mission in Sudan (AMIS) with a 22      view towards expeditiously reinforcing the effort to 23      foster peace in Darfur”.

24          (10) On March 29, 2005, the United Nations
25      Security Council passed Security Council Resolution

1 1591, extending the military embargo established by 2 Security Council Resolution 1556 to all the parties
3 to the N'djamena Ceasefire Agreement and any 4 other belligerents in the states of North Darfur,
5 South Darfur, and West Darfur, calling for an asset 6 freeze and travel ban against those individuals who 7 impede the peace process, constitute a threat to sta-8 bility in Darfur and the region, commit violations of 9 international humanitarian or human rights law or 10 other atrocities, or violate the military embargo, and 11 establishing a Panel of Experts to assist in moni-
12 toring compliance with Security Council Resolutions
13 1556 and 1591.

14 (11) On March 31, 2005, the United Nations
15 Security Council passed Security Council Resolution
16 1593, referring the situation in Darfur since July 1, 17 2002, to the prosecutor of the International Crimi-
18 nal Court and calling on the Government of Sudan 19 and all parties to the conflict to cooperate fully with 20 the Court, while recognizing that “[s]tates not party 21 to the Rome Statute have no obligation under the 22 [S]tatute”.

23 SEC. 4. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

24 It is the sense of Congress that—

1           (1) the atrocities unfolding in the Darfur region
2 of Sudan have been and continue to be genocide;

3           (2) the African Union should rapidly expand 4 the size and amend the mandate of the African 5 Union Mission in Sudan (AMIS) to authorize such 6 action as may be necessary to protect civilians and 7 humanitarian operations, and deter violence in the 8 Darfur region without delay;

9           (3) the international community, including the 10 United Nations, the North Atlantic Treaty Organi-11 zation (NATO), the European Union, and the 12 United States, should immediately act to mobilize
13 sufficient political, military, and financial resources
14 to support the expansion of the African Union Mis-
15 sion in Sudan so that it achieves the size, strength, 16 and capacity necessary for protecting civilians and 17 humanitarian operations, and ending the continued
18 violence in the Darfur region;

19           (4) if an expanded and reinforced African 20 Union Mission in Sudan fails to stop genocide in the 21 Darfur region, the international community should 22 take additional, dispositive measures to prevent and 23 suppress acts of genocide in the Darfur region;

24           (5) acting under Article 5 of the Charter of the 25 United Nations, the United Nations Security Coun-

1 cil should call for suspension of the Government of 2 Sudan's rights and privileges of membership by the 3 General Assembly until such time as the Govern-
4 ment of Sudan has honored pledges to cease attacks
5 upon civilians, demobilize the Janjaweed and associ-
6 ated militias, and grant free and unfettered access 7 for deliveries of humanitarian assistance in the 8 Darfur region;

9 (6) pursuant to the adoption of resolutions on 10 July 22, 2004, by both the House of Representatives 11 and the Senate, and the declaration on September 9, 12 2004, by former Secretary of State Colin Powell 13 that the atrocities unfolding in Darfur, Sudan, are 14 genocide, and notwithstanding the American 15 Servicemembers' Protection Act of 2002 (title II of 16 the 2002 Public Law 107-206), the United States
17 should render assistance to the efforts of the Inter-
18 national Criminal Court (ICC) to bring to justice
19 persons accused of genocide, war crimes, or crimes 20 against humanity in Darfur, Sudan, provided that 21 assurances have been received by the United Nations 22 Security Council or the ICC that no current or 23 former United States Government official or em-24 ployee (including any contractor), member of the 25 United States Armed Forces, or United States na-

1 tional will be subject to prosecution by the ICC in 2 connection with those efforts;

3 (7) the United States should not provide assist-4 ance to the Government of Sudan, other than assist-
5 ance necessary for the implementation of the Sudan 6 North-South Peace Agreement, the support of the 7 southern regional government in Sudan, or for hu-8 manitarian purposes in Sudan, until such time as 9 the Government of Sudan has honored pledges to 10 cease attacks upon civilians, demobilize the 11 Janjaweed and associated militias, and grant free 12 and unfettered access for deliveries of humanitarian 13 assistance in the Darfur region;

14 (8) the President should seek to assist members
15 of the Sudanese diaspora in the United States by es-16 tablishing a student loan forgiveness program for 17 those individuals who commit to return to southern 18 Sudan for a period of not less than five years for the 19 purpose of contributing professional skills needed for 20 the reconstruction of southern Sudan;

21 (9) the President should appoint a Presidential 22 Envoy for Sudan to provide stewardship of efforts to 23 implement the Sudan North-South Peace Agree-24 ment, seek ways to bring stability and peace to the 25 Darfur region, address instability elsewhere in

1 Sudan and northern Uganda, and pursue a truly 2 comprehensive peace throughout the region;

3 (10) the international community should 4 strongly condemn attacks against humanitarian 5 workers and demand that all armed groups in the 6 Darfur region, including the forces of the Govern-
7 ment of Sudan, the Janjaweed, associated militias, 8 the Sudan Liberation Movement/Army (SLM/A), the 9 Justice and Equality Movement (JEM), and all 10 other armed groups to refrain from such attacks;

11 (11) the United States should fully support the 12 Sudan North-South Peace Agreement and urge 13 rapid implementation of its terms; and

14 (12) the Sudan People's Liberation Movement 15 should seek to play a constructive role in bringing 16 about a political settlement to the crisis in the 17 Darfur region.
