SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY OF RECENT PUBLISHED DOCUMENT COLLECTIONS ON SOVIET HISTORY

THIS BIBLIOGRAPHY LISTS COLLECTIONS OF ARCHIVAL DOCUMENTS on twentieth-century Russian and Soviet history published in book form since 1989.<sup>1</sup> Given the outpouring of such collections in this period, and the present state of publishing in the former Soviet Union, it cannot be considered exhaustive. The bibliography does represent the effort of the compiler to gather as many titles as possible from his own research, from book and library catalogues, and from colleagues.<sup>2</sup>

Titles are listed alphabetically by principal compiler, editor, or author, where that information could be determined. For books listing both compilers and editors, a modified style is used that indicates the editors after the title of the volume. Books that are parts of series are indicated as such. Transliteration follows the recommendation of the U.S. Library of Congress; the spelling of place names follows traditional English conventions.<sup>3</sup>

The bibliography is organized broadly by time period: 1) Pre-1917; 2) 1917-1921; 3) 1922-1928; 4) 1929-1939; 5) 1939-1945; 6) Post-1945. Entries that span two time periods are placed in the most applicable category; those that span more than two of the time periods are placed in the "general" category. Included in the bibliography are collections of documents from former Soviet archives, as well as archival guides which detail specific documents even where the documents themselves are not reproduced. Translations of volumes originally published in Russian are listed with the Russian edition. Other sorts of archival guidebooks ("putovoditeli," etc.) are not included.

1. For archival documents published in journals in the former Soviet Union, the reader is directed to I. A. Kondakova, ed., Otkrytyi arkhiv: spravochnik opublikovannykh dokumentov po istorii Rossii XX veka iz gosudarstvennykh i semeinykh arkhivov (po otechestvennoi periodike 1985-1995 gg.) (Moscow, 1997).

2. The compiler acknowledges with appreciation the many submissions of references from members of the H-Russia listserv. Special thanks go to Andrea Graziosi, who offered both references and editorial support, and Terry Martin, who provided numerous references.

3. Every effort has been made to check the accuracy of all references with extant library catalogues. Given that the compiler has not seen most of the books in the bibliography, there may be mistakes in either the details or categorizations of references.
