SUMMARY OF ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Chair, Undergraduate Council, Los Angeles Division Academic Senate University of California, 1995-98. Council exercises authority for a// aspects of undergraduate education in the College of Letters and Sciences as well as professional schools at UCLA.

President (Elected), Pacific Sociological Association, 1996-97. Responsible for all aspects (scholarly, financial, public policy] of the Association.

President's Management Fellow, Office of the President, University of California, 1994-95, Participated in President's Cabinet, Vice President's Meeting, Council of Chancellors, and Provost's Cabinet. Carried out special assignments for the President.

Chair, Program Committee, Pacific Sociological Association, Annual Meeting, 1994-95. Led "internationalization" of the Association's annual program, organized and led the largest annual meeting in the previous fifteen years; doubled Association membership.

Member, Program Committee, Annual Meeting, Washington, DC, Amer. Soc. Assoc., 1994-95. Undertook responsibility for outreach and for creating greater access by sociological practitioners into the ASA executive office and annual meeting.

Chair (Elected), Section on Sociological Practice, Amer. Soc. Assoc., 1991-92. Persuaded ASA Council and Executive Office to allocate resources for outreach to sociological practitioners employed outside of academic settings. Stimulated cooperative arrangements with Sociological Practice Association. Created and institutionalized Professional Workshops for sociological practitioners to exhibit skills and techniques.

Associate Editor, Editorial Board, American Sociological Review, 1989-91. Reviewed articles on wide array of topics including, but not limited to, complex organizations, institutional discrimination, racial and ethnic relations. and cross cultural affairs.

Chair (Elected), Section on Racial and Ethnic Minorities, Amer. Soc. Assoc., 1989-90. Led effort to institutionalize broad based cooperative joint sessions with section on sociological practice; with special emphasis on techniques for inter-racial-ethnic cooperation.

President (Elected), Society for the Study of Social Problems, 1985-86.

Responsible for all aspects [scholarly, financial, public policy] of the Association. Negotiated, for the Board of Directors, the difficult termination from an Executive Director with twenty-five years of service to newly appointed and inexperienced Executive Director (each harboring mutual distrust, animosity, and even hostility to the other). Negotiated arrangements for an Executive Office in the new host institution. Negotiated contract with new publisher of the Society's Journal.

Member (Elected), Executive Committee, College of Letters & Sciences, UCLA, 1983-85. Served normal two-year term. Assisted in wide array of actions normally coming before the Committee.

Associate Editor, Editorial Board, Sociological Inquiry, 1982-90. Served unusual eight year term, advocated for more extensive substantive coverage of sociological practice and of institutional discrimination within complex organizations.

Member (Elected), Council, American Sociological Association, 1982-85, Led evaluation and establishment of Section on Sociological Practice. Active in establishment of Sociological Practice Review. Also active for development of procedures for certification and licensure of sociological practitioners as well as for the monitoring of actions by state legislatures on the issue of licensure for sociological practitioners. Participated in early drafting of ASA Professional Code of Ethics and in drafting goals for the then newly proposed ASA Foundation.

Associate Editor, Editorial Board, Clinical Sociology Review, 1982-85. Served a three-year term. Helped generate cooperation between Sociological Practice Association and American Sociological Association.

Vice Chair, Graduate Council, UCLA, 1980-81. Led evaluation and establishment of MA degree in Native American Studies. Assisted in reviews of Program in Latin American Studies, Dept. of Physics, Dept. of Mathematics, Dept. of Nuclear, Aeronautical, and Mechanical Engineering.

President (Elected), International Honor Society in Sociology, 1976-79. Responsible for all aspects (scholarly, financial, public policy) of the Association. Instigated name-change to reflect inclusive expansion of society's activity from "national" to "international" issues. Led first-ever revision of constitution to stimulate greater participation by faculty in chapter-society relations and by students within their respective chapter affairs, also to increase support for Sociological Inquiry.

Associate Editor, Editorial Board, Social Science Quarterly, 1971-86. Served unusual fifteen-year term to simulate submissions to the journal and proper review of articles on Mexican Americans specifically and Latino population generally to increase awareness and concern within the social science research community for research on this population.

Founder & Director, Spanish Speaking Mental Health Research Center, UCLA, 1973-75. Established nation's first research center devoted to broad social science research implications for community mental health within the Spanish Speaking population.

Director, Chicano Studies Research Center, UCLA, 1972-74. Instigated change of title and mission from "Mexican American Cultural Center" to "Chicano Studies Research Center"-, developed program for seed-funding of nascent research projects and in-kind support for external funding of larger research projects. Facilitated recruitment of faculty for natural and life sciences, humanities, and social sciences.

Resident Faculty Fellow, Morse College, Yale University, 1966-72. Helped instigated program of "student-initiated/organized but "faculty-taught" courses based within each residential college.
